

& Environmental threats and climatic changes in the Amazon

8th HYBAM
scientific meeting
www.so-hybam.org

2-6 September 2019, Toulouse (France)
Natural History Museum

Program Topics:

Hydrology and Climatology: past and present variability

Terrestrial & aquatic biodiversity

Information for water-related risks and disasters

Remote sensing for water cycle monitoring

Source to sink sediment transfer and geodynamic processes

Biogeochemistry of fluvial waters

Contamination and social impacts

Contact : Toulouse2019@ird.fr

Important date

Extended deadline
for abstract Submission:

30 June 2019

Second circular

Participation is free of charge

Meeting's languages: French, Spanish, English

Organization

- Géosciences Environnement Toulouse Laboratory (GET)
- Observatoire Midi-Pyrénées (OMP)
- Muséum d'Histoire Naturelle de Toulouse (MHNT)
- Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (CNRS)
- Institut de Recherche pour le Développement (IRD)

People interested in presenting a communication (oral or poster) are invited to send an abstract with a complete list of authors before June 30th 2019 (extended deadline) to the address: toulouse2019@ird.fr

Abstract will be reviewed by the program's committee.

